Explanation of License Types

1. Nursery Stock Dealer License $100 fee – Covers the sale at permanent business locations other than the growing location, of hardy perennial or biennial trees, shrubs or vines, or other nursery stock, including rose bushes, and for LANDSCAPERS planting or transplanting stock types listed above.
2. Nursery Stock Dealer Market License $100 fee – Covers the sale of nursery stock at temporary business locations such as at roadside markets, farmers' markets, craft shows, from a truck, other vehicle, or from a market stall.
3. Plant Dealer License $100 fee – Covers the sale at permanent business locations other than the growing location, of hardy soft-stemmed plants, small-fruited plants, rhubarb and asparagus, or hardy bulbs. Also required for LANDSCAPERS planting or transplanting the stock type listed in this description. It does not cover the sale of rose bushes. A plant dealer license is not required if you hold a Nursery Stock Dealer License.
4. Plant Dealer Market License $100 fee – Covers the sale of same plant types as Plant Dealer, but operating at temporary business locations such as at roadside markets, farmers' markets, craft shows, from a truck or other vehicle, or from a market stall.
5. General Nursery (Grower) License $100 fee – For growers of hardy perennial or biennial trees, shrubs or vines, or other nursery stock, including rose bushes.
6. Plant Grower $100 fee – For growers of herbaceous perennials including hardy soft-stemmed flowering plants, small-fruited plants, rhubarb and asparagus, or hardy bulbs. It does not cover the sale of rose bushes.
7. Small-scale Grower $40 fee - For growers with less than 200 square feet of utilized greenhouse growing space or less than 1/4 acre of nursery stock. Requires evaluation by MDA inspector.
8. Small-scale Grower Market License $40 fee - Covers the sale of nursery stock at temporary business locations by Small Scale Grower licensees. Requires evaluation by MDA inspector.
